Latitude isn't just a line on a map.
It's a state of mind.
At 34° South, 23° East, something clicks.
Ocean meets forest. Lagoon meets mountain.
Salt, sun, and a little wild optimism.
Some call it ley lines. Some blame the light.
We just know it works.
This is Knysna. This is 34° South.
This is attitude at our latitude.

LONGITUDE: Your position on the line that runs East or West of the Greenwich Meridian. Knysna longitude: 23°2' East

Ask the hippies, the mystics, the dreamers, and the lovers, and they'll tell you: there's a special energy at the confluence of 34° South and 23° East. It has something to do with ley lines and sun paths and something they call the diamond-light grid.

You know the spot that's got everything that makes Attitude at our Latitude.
