

Tanzania: Off the Map

SEVEN-NIGHT ITINERARY

Ruaha National Park straddles the convergence zone of southern and eastern African ecosystems, resulting in remarkable biodiversity unlike any other national park in Tanzania. It is home to Tanzania's largest lion populations, endangered African Wild Dog, and 574 bird species. While Katavi National Park, along Tanzania's western safari circuit is dubbed the country's 'wild west' for reasons we'll leave up to your imagination.

ABOUT US

The success of our camps ultimately comes down to our extensive hands-on experience in managing safaris.

We believe that our success at Foxes Safari Camps comes down to our love of Tanzania's wilderness, extensive knowledge of responsible tourism practices, and hands-on experience in managing a safari company and airline. Over four decades, our family-owned Tanzanian safari company has grown thanks to the passion and talents of the Fox family. Each of us loves being on safari and is committed to protecting Tanzania's wild spaces.

We specialise in tailor-made, personalised safaris showcasing the best of Tanzania.

We would like to emphasise that the suggested itineraries covered in this brochure are merely a sample of the many different options available. These itineraries can be booked as they are, or used as a template, where you can increase or reduce nights and add, remove or exchange locations.

The quotes listed in this brochure are based on 2026-2027 rates and includes the game package rate, park and concession fee's, domestic flights, airport taxes, airport and airstrip transfers, and boat transfers (in the case of Lazy Lagoon Island Lodge).

The rate is per person on the basis that they will be sharing with at least one other adult.

Reduced child rates are also available.

All flights are operated with our sister company Safari Air Link.

DAY 2 | RUAHA NATIONAL PARK

After breakfast, transfer back to the airport to catch your flight to Ruaha National Park.

Flight No. 01 – Departure: 10:30 | Arrival: 12:55
(Times may vary depending on flight scheduling.)

RUAHA RIVER LODGE | RUAHA NATIONAL PARK

Upon arrival, a guide from Ruaha River Lodge will meet you at the airstrip and take you to the lodge, assisting with check-in and welcoming you to the wild charm of central Tanzania.

Ruaha River Lodge provides an up-close perspective of the untamed wilderness and biodiversity of Ruaha National Park across two breathtaking locations. From atop a kopje, the dining area showcases panoramic vistas of Ruaha River in all directions. While the modern riverside camp on the water's edge offers unparalleled wildlife sightings and birding.

Ruaha River Lodge was the only safari camp in the national park for two decades, before Tanzania opened to international tourism. As a pioneer of its time this allowed for its prime position along the river and far from any other safari lodges. The lodge's remoteness is its defining feature and greatest selling point, leaving guests feeling that they have Ruaha National Park seemingly all to themselves.

Activities

During your stay at Ruaha River Lodge, you'll have the freedom to choose between half-day shared game drives or full-day excursions with a picnic lunch—each promising memorable wildlife sightings in one of Africa's most untouched wilderness areas.

- Early Morning Game Drive

Departing at 06:30 with a picnic breakfast, return at 11:30

- Morning Game Drive

Depart after breakfast at 08:30, return in time for lunch

- Afternoon Game Drives

Depart at 16:00, return at dusk for sundowners

- Full-Day Game Drives

Depart at 08:30 with a picnic lunch, return at 16:00 for afternoon tea

Each drive offers a different perspective of Ruaha's diverse terrain, from rocky kopjes and baobab valleys to wide, open plains and the wildlife-rich riverbanks. Whether you're tracking lion prides, spotting kudu, or simply enjoying the stillness of the bush, your time here is sure to be filled with extraordinary moments.

Walking with the Maasai:

For something a little different, take a leisurely 2km walk around camp with our Maasai escorts, who will share their deep knowledge of the surrounding flora, fauna, and traditional uses of natural resources. This immersive walk offers a cultural insight and a chance to connect more closely with the landscape around you.

There's also the opportunity to experience hot air ballooning over Ruaha, offering a breathtaking perspective of the park at sunrise. The flight is followed by a scenic bush breakfast served in the heart of the wilderness. This activity operates seasonally from July to October and must be booked in advance. A supplementary fee applies.

You can also opt for private game drives, which provide the flexibility of your own exclusive vehicle and guide. These drives can be arranged to suit your schedule, with departure times available anytime between 06:30 and 18:00. Please note that private game drives must be booked in advance and are subject to a supplementary fee.

DAY 5 | KATAVI NATIONAL PARK

Head out west to the vast plains of Katavi National Park

Flight No. SAL05 – Departure: 07:00 | Arrival: 08:40 Mondays and Thursdays only
(Times may vary slightly depending on the day's flight schedule.)

KATAVI WILDLIFE CAMP | KATAVI NATIONAL PARK

At the airstrip, a guide from Katavi Wildlife Camp will be waiting to greet you and take you on a scenic game drive through the park, ending with check-in at camp. That afternoon, set out on your first proper safari adventure in Katavi, returning at dusk to enjoy a refreshing shower and sundowners around the campfire.

DAY 6 & 7 | KATAVI NATIONAL PARK

The night before, the manager will have discussed the options for today's safaris. Here's what you would be able to choose from and turn your bucket list into a reality:

- Early Morning Game Drive

Departing at 06:30 with a picnic breakfast, return at 11:30

These drives can be arranged to suit your schedule, with departure times available anytime between 06:30 and 18:00. Please note that private game drives must be booked in advance and are subject to a supplementary fee.

Special occasion? book a private bush breakfast or sundowner in a secluded location, with your own butler, chef and laid out table. Breakfast is cooked to order with all the trimmings.

DID YOU KNOW?

Venture off the beaten path to discover the untouched Katavi National Park. Nestled along the western safari circuit, Katavi Wildlife Camp offers an intimate safari experience, inviting you to connect with nature's beauty without the crowds. It is situated between the Miombo woodlands and the golden grasslands of the Katisunga Plain, near the edge of the Katuma River.

The camp's double-storey, al-fresco dining and lounge area offers an elevated lookout point over the Katisunga Plain, for unrivalled game viewing in what is said to be Tanzania's most wildlife-dense national park.

DAY 8 | DEPARTURE

After breakfast, head to the airstrip for your flight back to Dar es Salaam.

If landing in Dar, a member of our team will help transfer you to Terminal 3 for your international flight.

If landing in Zanzibar or Mafia the local ground handlers will take over.
